

JAG Classes by Training Level

	Non-Competitive Classes	Competitive Handling Classes		Skills & Drills Class Options				Equipment Used in Classes
Entry Level Classes	Beginners 1	Foundation Skills for Agility	Puppy Foundations for Agility	Obedience Foundations for Agility	Introduction to Agility Equipment	Introduction to Agility Handling	Building Drive & Motivations	Training aids Jumps (at appropriate height for age) Tunnels
Move Up Criteria:	To advance to the next level dogs should be able to sit/stay, recall, beginning commitment to wing, some impulse control, wobble board exposure, body awareness, follow the handler/beginning handling on leash
Beginner Level Classes	Beginners 2	Advanced Foundation	Puppy Foundations 2	Games for Focus & Attention	Skills & Drills: Focus on Jumping	Introduction to Handling	Foundations for Novice & Open	Training aids, jumps, tunnels, teeter
Move Up Criteria:	To advance to the next level dogs should be able to sit/stay with handler at a distance, show commitment to a wing from 6 feet away, flatwork for contact training, bang game for teeter, restraint recalls with FC & BC
Pre-Novice Level Classes	Advanced Beginners	Pre-Novice Handling	Diversified Coursework	Introduction to Weaves	Handling Techniques	Introduction to Contacts	Skills & Drills Adding Verbals to your Toolbox	All equipment
Move Up Criteria:	To advance to the next level dogs should be familiar with all obstacles and able to complete sequences with 8 - 10 obstacles
Novice/Open Level Classes	Agility	Novice/Open Handling	Mastering Excellent Sequences	Independent Weave Poles	Advanced Handling Techniques	Skills for Running or Stopped Contacts	Distance Handling Skills	All equipment
Move Up Criteria:	To advance to the next level dogs should be proficient on all equipment and able to complete full courses as evidenced by some titles if competing or permission from instructors
Masters Level Classes	Advanced Agility	Excellent/Masters Handling	Premier/International Handling	Proofing Weave Poles & Contacts	Masters Masters Challenges	Fast Dogs with Not-So-Fast Handlers	Masters Level Games (FAST, Gamblers & Snooker)	All equipment
	*Not all classes are available each session.							